COMMITTEE DESCRIPTIONS

Regarding Committee composition and members

The Australian Book Designers Association exists to support Australian book designers – to promote their work to, and connect with, the broader publishing community. ABDA is an incorporated non-profit host organisation. The ABDA Committee exists to ensure the organisation's aims and legal obligations to its members are met.

The Committee is made up of paying ABDA individual members who are self- or peer-nominated for election. Election is conducted by paying ABDA members at an annual general meeting, in person or by proxy. The Committee is composed of 9 members and one Manager. Of the 9 members, there are 4 office bearers: President, Vice President, Treasurer and Secretary.

COMMITTEE MEMBERS are expected to:

1. Understand and uphold the ABDA aims outlined in the Mission Statement;
2. Attend monthly Committee meetings, in person or via Skype. A quorum (minimum number) of committee members must be present for any motions to be passed, so meeting attendance is essential;
3. Familiarise themselves with the Rules of the Association, in particular that if a committee member fails to attend 3 consecutive committee meetings without leave of absence they will cease to be a committee member;
4. Chair or actively participate in at least one Subcommittee;
5. Email succinct Subcommittee updates (actions, decisions, issues) to the Manager in advance of monthly Committee meetings, and report Subcommittee updates in detail at the meeting;
6. Attend an informal meeting before the annual Awards event, and a formal planning meeting on the day after the Awards event;
7. Be prepared to occasionally speak on behalf of the Association at public events and workshops.

OFFICER BEARERS must fulfill the above Committee expectations and in addition:

1. Attend occasional Office Bearer meetings, in person or via Skype;
2. Conduct a thorough handover of records and processes associated with the role at the end of their tenure, and be available for a reasonable amount of consultation with the incoming office bearer.
3. Fulfill the requirements associated with their individual roles below:

President:

1. Provide leadership and direction for the Committee to achieve the ABDA aims outlined in the Mission Statement;
2. Act as spokesperson for ABDA and work to maintain key media and industry relationships for the association and its members;
3. Chair monthly Committee meetings and the AGM;

4. Work with the Manager to prepare agendas for monthly Committee meetings;
5. Call occasional Office Bearer meetings when deemed necessary by any Committee member or the Manager;
6. Write a 'president's report' for the annual Awards Catalogue;
7. Act as a signatory on the ABDA bank account and sign sponsorship agreements and other legal documents on behalf of the Association;
8. Sit on the HR Committee.

Vice President:

1. Take over the President's duties in instances where the President takes leave or is unwell;
2. Take over the Secretary's duties in instances where the Secretary takes leave or is unwell, including taking and archiving meeting minutes;
3. Work with the President to manage key media and industry relationships for the association and its members;
4. Act as a signatory on the ABDA bank account when necessary.

Treasurer:

1. Work with the Manager and/or book keeper to oversee the Association's budget, ensuring records are kept in MYOB and Excel (or other software) available for the Committee to easily access;
2. Manage the ABDA bank account, including acting as a signatory on the account and signing legal documents on behalf of the Association;
3. Prepare budget reports for the AGM and other relevant planning meetings;
4. Ensure the Manager's salary is fairly paid, including CPI related wage increase;
5. Sit on the HR Committee.

Secretary:

1. The Secretary must be based in Victoria, to fulfil the requirements from Consumer Affairs Victoria's Associations Incorporation Reform Act ('the Act');
2. Consult with the Manager to ensure the Committee/Association adheres to the legally binding Rules for an Incorporated Association, as outlined in 'the Act';
3. Ensure meetings are effectively minuted, as outlined in 'the Act' by taking meeting notes, circulating them to the committee immediately after the meeting and archiving them;
4. Prepare agendas for the AGM with Manager;
5. Act as a signatory on the ABDA bank account;
6. Sit on the HR Committee.
